Chamberlain: Anghared verch Reynulf – I've had Sergeantry things dropped off at my home for inventory and control by Sgt. Major Gavin McFindlay, joining the other boxes and roll of non-polyester cloak fabric already there. I have a number of musty polyester cloaks that will have the patches removed for salvage, thus cutting down the amount of storage the Sergeantry items requires. At the Autumn War meeting, I met with Otto and we exchanged contact information with an eye towards doing a full inventory and better packing job/method towards the end of April or early May.
